Department of Economics

ECON1010DE/UGEC1511DE
Perspectives in Economics
2nd Term 2017 – 2018

Course Objective

This course provides an introduction to the nature of the economic problem and how society and man deal with the economic problem. This course aims to equip students so that they are economic literate. Students will learn the meaning of terms and concepts that will help them understand current social, political and economic events and be able to apply the knowledge in their everyday lives.

Learning Outcome

After completion of the course, students are expected to:

- acquire problem solving skills to think like an economist.
- master a set of concepts that will help them think more coherently and consistently about a wide range of problems.
- be able to use these skills in their everyday lives.
