

April 7, 2011

Dear students,

Revision to the Declaration of Concentration Area(s)

In compliance with the regulations of the University, the declaration of Concentration Area(s) will be revised with immediate effect. All applications should be made via CUSIS within a period prescribed by the Registration and Examination Section.

Students may declare a concentration i) after the requisite courses for a concentration have been completed, or ii) in the same term that the requisite courses for a concentration are expected to be completed. Upon completion of all requisite courses for a concentration, the said concentration will be indicated in the academic transcript. For detailed application procedures, students should refer to announcements from the Registration and Examinations Section.

Department of Economics
The Chinese University of Hong Kong

