

THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

ECON3350
China and the World Economy

COURSE SYLLABUS
(2023-2024 Second Term)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The rise of China is the major event of the 21st century. Hong Kong has played an important role in the opening and reform of the Chinese economy. This course examines the major issues and challenges involved in the rise of China and economic integration of Hong Kong and the Mainland. Well-known experts from the finance sector and governmental organizations will be invited to discuss and analyse current economic issues such as Hong Kong's integration with the Pearl River Delta and the Mainland, the status of Hong Kong as China's trading, financial and services hub, the impacts on the global economy of the Hong Kong-Mainland economic nexus, and economic cooperation between Hong Kong and the Mainland.

Students are assumed to have knowledge of introductory microeconomics and macroeconomics. While the factual topics about the Chinese will be covered in the guest lectures, the regular lectures will feature advanced topics in macroeconomics.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

After completing this course, students should be able to:

- Understand the major issues involved in the rise of the Chinese economy and the impacts on the world economy.
- Understand the major issues involved in the economic integration of the Hong Kong and the Chinese Mainland.
- To intelligently discuss and evaluate the debates on these issues.

HONESTY IN ACADEMIC WORK

Students must observe the University's policy on Honesty in Academic Work (please see <http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty/>). Every assignment must be accompanied by a signed declaration of originality. For group projects, all students of the same group should be asked to sign on the declaration. For assignments in the form of a computer-generated document that is principally text-based and submitted via VeriGuide, the statement, in the form of a receipt, will be issued by the system upon students' uploading of the soft copy of the assignment. Assignments without the receipt will not be graded by teachers. Only the final version of assignments should be submitted via VeriGuide. The Chinese University of Hong Kong places very high importance on honesty in academic work submitted by students, and adopts a policy of zero tolerance on cheating in examinations and plagiarism. Any related offence will lead to disciplinary action including termination of studies at the University.
